FROM RICK'S DESK

A Mother's Love

There are times when only a mother's love
Can understand our tears,
Can soothe our disappointments
And calm all of our fears.

There are times when only a mother's love
Can share the joy we feel
When something we've dreamed about
Quite suddenly is real.

There are times when only a mother's faith
Can help us on life's way
And inspire in us the confidence
We need from day to day.

For a mother's heart and a mother's faith
And a mother's steadfast love
Were fashioned by the angels
And sent from God above.

--Author Unknown

One of the most beautiful letters ever written was addressed by the Scottish essayist and historian, Thomas Carlyle, to his mother Margaret Carlyle. The letter was found when Mr. Froude went over Carlyle's papers after his death, and bore the inscription, "My last letter to my mother."

My dear, good mother,

Let it be ever a comfort to you, however weak you are, that you did your part honorably and well while in strength, and were a noble mother to me and to us all. I am now myself grown old, and have had various things to do and suffer for so many years, but there is nothing I ever had to be so much thankful for as the mother I had. That is a truth which I know well, and perhaps this day again it may be some comfort to you. Yes, surely, for if there has been good in the things I have uttered in the world's hearing, it was your voice essentially that was speaking through me; essentially what you and my brave father meant and taught me to mean, this was the purport of all I spoke and wrote. And if in the few years that may remain to me, I am to get any more written for the world, the essence of it, so far as it is worthy and good, will still be yours. May God reward you, my dearest mother, for all you have done for me! I never can.

(Robert J. Morgan, On This Day, Nashville:Thomas Nelson Publishers, 1997)

What more could someone add? Thank you, mothers, for all you've done, are doing, and will continue to do. We are blessed through your thankless labor.

(2 Tim. 1:3-5)

SUMMER FUN ACCH

The ACCH is in need of Summer Fun gift card donations. Details can be located on the flyers posted on the church bulletin boards.

BLING MINISTRY

The Bling Team is now placing donation boxes in various congregations across the city. Mountainside has been fantastically generous in the past by donating jewelry, purses, and scarves. This year we are accepting fancy hats also.

The proceeds from the upcoming Bling Event go to the non-profit, faith-based Shine program which partners congregations with APS schools in need. Our schools need Godly people in them helping students, teachers, and families. The Bling Box (purple and silver) is located in the Family Center.

HELP NEEDED

We just wrapped up another semester here at UNM, and we have some exciting news! On May 30 the CSC@UNM will be receiving it's first team from Adventures In Missions (AIM). Three young men and three young ladies will be joining our efforts on campus!

We have secured housing but are in need of bedroom furniture for the three guys. So we are holding an AREA-WIDE RUMMAGE on Saturday, June 1st. This will allow the AIMers to get the items they need and the rest of the proceeds will be used for updating and organizing the CSC. If you have anything you would like to donate, please let us know. If possible we would like items to be dropped off at the CSC, but we can help pick up if necessary. Please communicate by text, email, or phone with Garrett. 505-681-4028 or gschmille@gmail.com

THANK YOU

To All Teachers,
